- the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith, and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

We recognise and appreciate the uniqueness of our pupils and all the members of our school community. Our inclusive school meets the terms of the nine grounds as listed in the Equal Status Act 2000. As per the act we do not discriminate on grounds of gender, marital status, family status, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, race, or membership of the traveller community. Our small class sizes and tailored learning support programme allow us to carefully attend to the individual needs of all of our students.

Mary Queen of Ireland NS will cooperate with the NCSE in the performance by the Council of its functions under the Education for Persons with Special Educational Needs Act 2004 in relation to the provision of education to children with special educational needs, including in particular by the provision and operation of a special class or classes when requested to do so by the Council. Mary Queen of Ireland NS will comply with any direction served on the board or the patron under section 37A and 67(4)(b)

We follow the philosophy of positive psychology and endeavour to help our students to thrive as happy, resilient and respectful individuals.

We strive to nurture the spiritual, moral, cognitive, emotional, imaginative, aesthetic, social and physical dimensions of our pupils.

We aim to instil a love of learning that will remain with the child throughout life and that will express itself in an enquiring mind and a heightened curiosity.

We aim to enable the child to participate as active, responsible citizens in society, with a special awareness of the affects their actions may have on themselves, others and their environment.

We promote ecological and sustainable living as welt as healthy diet, physical fitness and positive mental health and well-being amongst our pupils and our school community.

As part of our school ethos, our day begins and ends with a prayer and prayers precede meals. Suggested prayers are found in the Grow in Love programme.

We provide a caring, happy and safe learning environment where the pupils feel happy and the teachers and staff feel fulfilled, motivated and supported.

Our school motto, "At the Heart of Learning" reminds us that we are a centre of learning in the community. We are committed to making finks with all members of the community; parents, management, church, local agencies; with a view to developing relationships and realising opportunities that will benefit and support the extended family of Mary Queen of Ireland National School.
